I can't say enough amazing things about Catherine! She actually cares about me as a creator and has done research finding out what brands I would be a good fit to work with. She takes time researching brands and creates a pitch that is authentic to me and also spends time looking for what brands need to write a pitch that converts. I have been so pleased with her work and the jobs she has been able to get for me in a short time! I no longer have to worry about the stress of pitching, organizing, or out sourcing brands. If you're a content creator trying to juggle all the things, I highly suggest hiring Cate to take things off your plate. Having someone like her in your corner that also wants you to succeed has been such a blessing!

Working with Cate has been an absolute game changer for my business! She's incredibly responsive, easy to work with, and always on top of things, so I never have to wonder where anything stands. She's taken so much off my plate and made running things smoother than I thought possible. I can't recommend her enough. If you're on the fence about hiring her, don't be. She's a gem! ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐

I only wish I would have found my VA sooner! My VA is absolutely amazing, from pitching, to responding to emails, to organization.. I honestly don't know how I ran a successful business without her. Catherine and her team are an investment I will continue to make, it's like the backend of my business is on autopilot.

If you are a creator looking for top-tier support, you need a Hannah in your life. She's insanely hard-working, insanely reliable, and somehow communicates better across time zones than most people do in the same room!

Within just a few months of working together, her proactive strategies have already landed me multiple high-end brand deals. Her follow-up game is unmatched (honestly way better than mine!), and she constantly goes above and beyond to find new ways to grow my revenue. She has made my life so much easier—I truly don't know what I'd do without her!

MEET THE FOUNDER

Cate's journey as a UGC VA started with a decision to step away from the traditional 8-5 when she got her son. She wanted to do something that would give her more freedom and flexibility.

Before starting her VA journey, she spent three years working in admin and procurement, and later as a sales administrator. She had always been familiar with the remote work space, having explored online work while in university, so leaving her corporate job felt like the right time to find her way back to it.

She started by working with clients across different industries and learning along the way. But somewhere in that journey, she noticed she was naturally drawn to working with content creators. She loved being part of the behind-the-scenes work that helped them show up, stay organized, and grow their businesses.

That realization led her to niche down and build a VA business focused on supporting UGC creators. Today, Cate works alongside a small team of VAs who help creators with the work behind the scenes, giving them more time and space to focus on their creativity, content, and business.

What started as a search for flexibility has grown into a business she loves, and one that allows her to support other people building something of their own.
